HIGH-LEVEL CONCEPT

Teela is a wizard who wields the mysterious power of the blue flame.

PERSONALITY

She has an excellent grasp of her abilities but she's better with books, magic, and research than she is with people. It's led to a lonely life, and one where she doesn't get very close to people. To exasperate her social faux pas she, not unlike her magic, has a bit of a hot streak.

ORIGINS

Hero - Teela was found and mentored by a group of recluse wizards who taught her to harness her power and to use it to help others.

Villain - Teela was ridiculed for her abilities and ostracized from her home. She has never forgiven the townspeople for what they have done.

Neutral - She's obsessed with learning as much as she can about the Blue Flame and her powers. This would probably make her a little bit of a magic geek.

MOTIVATION

Teela wants to discover the secret of the the blue flame, and discover who or what created this power, and why she was chosen to wield its power.
